

for the security of the information received;

(2) A legal description of the area for which the information is sought;

(3) A statement of the purpose for which the information is sought; and,

(4) Written assurances that the requesting party will maintain the confidentiality of the information and protect the cave and its resources.

(c) Decision final. The decision to permit or deny access to confidential cave information is made at the sole discretion of the authorized officer and is not subject to further administrative review or appeal under 5 U.S.C. 552 or parts 217 or 251.82 of this chapter.

§ 290.5 Collection of information.

The collection of information contained in this rule represents new information requirements as defined in 5 CFR part 1320, Controlling Paperwork Burdens on the Public. In accordance with those rules and the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 as amended (44 U.S.C. 3507), the Forest Service has received approval by the Office of Management and Budget to collect cave nomination information under clearance number 0596-0123 and confidential information under 0596-0122. The information provided for the cave nominations will be used to determine which caves will be listed as "significant" and the information in the requests to obtain confidential cave information will be used to decide whether to grant access to this information. Response to the call for cave nominations is voluntary. No action may be taken against a person for refusing to supply the information requested. Response to the information requirements for obtaining confidential cave information is required to obtain a benefit in accordance with section 5 of the Federal Cave Resources Protection Act of 1988 (16 U.S.C. 4304).

PART 291—OCCUPANCY AND USE OF DEVELOPED SITES AND AREAS OF CONCENTRATED PUBLIC USE

Sec.

291.1 Definitions.

291.2 Admission fees and recreation use fees.

291.3 Reservation fees.

AUTHORITY. 16 U.S.C. 460I-6a.

§ 291.1 Definitions.

For the purposes of this part the following term shall mean:

Area of concentrated public use: An area that is managed primarily for outdoor recreation purposes, contains at least one major recreation attraction where facilities and services necessary to accommodate heavy public use are provided, and provides public access to the area in such a manner that admission fees can be efficiently collected at one or more centralized locations.

[61 FR 1716, Jan. 23, 1996]

§ 291.2 Admission fees and recreation use fees.

(a) Fees shall be charged for admission to Congressionally designated National Recreation Areas, National Monuments, National Volcanic Monuments, and National Scenic Areas administered by the Secretary of Agriculture and no more than 21 areas of concentrated public use designated by the Chief of the Forest Service as provided by section 4(a) of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965, as amended.

(b) Recreation use fees will be charged for the use of sites, facilities, equipment or services furnished at Federal expense as provided by section 4(b) of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965, as amended. Such fees shall be established by the Chief, Forest Service, or his delegate.

(c) Clear notice that an admission or entrance fee or recreation use fee has been established shall be prominently posted at each area and at appropriate locations therein and shall be included in publications distributed at such areas.

[39 FR 30037, Aug. 20, 1974, as amended at 42 FR 35959, July 13, 1977; Redesignated and amended at 61 FR 1716, Jan. 23, 1996]

§ 291.3 Reservation fees.

(a) The Forest Service may charge fees to recover expenses incurred in providing reservation services for the public use of recreation areas and sites and Wilderness Areas where limitations on use are deemed necessary or desirable to achieve the management purposes of an area of the National Forest System. The Chief of the Forest

§ 292.11

Service or his delegate shall establish the amount of such fees.

(b) Forest Service officials shall prominently post clear notice that a reservation fee has been established at each area, site or Wilderness Area and at appropriate locations therein. Publications distributed at such areas, sites, and Wilderness Areas shall also include such notice.
